W. S. Brooks is the duly accredited Agent for this Paper.

We append below the names of the contributors to the monument to be erected to the memory of those gallant spirits who lost their lives in defense of what they believed to be right-in the endeavor to rescue their country from the grasp of tyranny and oppression. Our people are coming up to their duty in this regard with commendable zeal, and we take pleasure in recording so gratifying a fact. It speaks "like angels trumpet-tongued" in their favor; and it can not but be a source of gratification to every one who has pride in Old Hardeman, to see the liberality of her citizens in the matter under consideration. Let the ball be kept rolling.

The undersigned wishes to get the name of all Confederate soldies who were killed or died in the service from this county. Commanding officers of companies, are particularly requested to send in a list of all such from their companies. All those who have lost friends will please send in the namse, with full particulars as to when, and where they died or were killed, and to what company and regiment they belonged. Funds collected for the monument wi be sent to me with the name of subscriber. A. P. McNeal, sec y Ass'n.

ENCOURAGING .- The citizens of our count are beginning to appreciate our efforts to build up a first class paper in their midst. The BULLETIN never was more flourishing and nota day passes by without our receiving substantial tokens of the people's approbations of the course of our paper. As an evidence of what we have just stated, w have added seventy five names to our already has been circulated through the country in this State like the upper story of a house large subscription list during the present that our distinguished friend A. to be able to announce that the interest manifested in the cause of education grows apace in our midst. Our people approxiate the fact that the only hope of our regaining our former high estate, politically speaking, lies in the proper education of the youth of the land. All our schools are in a highly flour ishing condition. But why should they be otherwise? Have we not teachers that will compare favorably with any in this or any other State?-leachers who are fitted for these high callings in every respect, whether in point of education, energy or industry, or in the splendid example which they duly set before their pupils? Our schools | to show your "folks to home" how well most extensive patronage. They are hailed as an evidence of superior refinement, just as their absence is regarded as a sign of degeneracy and the lack of appreciation for the beautiful, on the part of such a community. The Kohinvor of royalty is not more to be prized than a well cultivated mind; nor Cornelia's jewels more worthy of admiration than he who gems the mind of the young with the rubies of thought and the pearls of wisdom and virtue.

THE EPISCOPAL CONVENTION - We have already given an abstract of the proceedings of this bedy, and now we have only to refer to it in general terms. Our town was graced with many pleasant visitors from a distance, both male and female, but more particular the latter. The sermons we heard were characterized by much piety and learning, and the seed sown we doubt not fell cubach, and he will tell you how you can and lots 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 of block 70; lots upon good ground that will bring forth in due season, a rich harvest of religious fervor. On last Sunday, Bishop Quintard deliverered one of the most eloquent and impresio es sive sermons, to which it has ever been our good fortune to listen. We were peculiarly struck by the earnestness with which he pose and none other. One need not say why Ford & Wilson, Boots & Shoes, 389 Main st. besought sinners to seek an interest in the Savior, and the Catholic spirit that pervaded his whole discourse. St. James' Church was filled to overflowing and we have seldom seen an audience held so completely spellbound as we witnessed on that occasion, Like Mr. Gray-the worthy rector of St. James'-Bishop Quintard is quite a favorite with all of our citizens, and we only wish that he could be with us and preach for us

We were pleased to learned from his neighbors that Mr Pirtle, who has been suffering for the last two years with a severe chronic disease, and who had been pronounced by some of our oldest and most experienced physicians to be beyond the hope of recovery, is rapidly recovering under the skillful treatment of Dr. Hugh Tate, of this place. We congratulate the Dr. on his success. A few more such cases and Dr. Tate will have established a reputation, for professional skill and ability unsurpassed by any physician in this State. If any o our readers doubt the truth of what we have said, let them enquire of any of his neighbors what the condition of Mr. Firtle was when he commenced attending to him, and the meaning of the term mu (mew) tatis, what it is now, and they will be satisfied.
